SPECIAL SPANKING ISSUE

fact, fantasy, and readers' letters

Didn't feel like going to school today. Mum is in favour of education and gave me a lesson there and then.

Oh knickers! I've missed the bus and I'll be late for school. Bet I get it in the neck.

In fact I got it on the bottom! And I have to take a letter home.

On the way home, I thought the farmer wouldn't miss a few of his apples. But I got caught with my pants down!

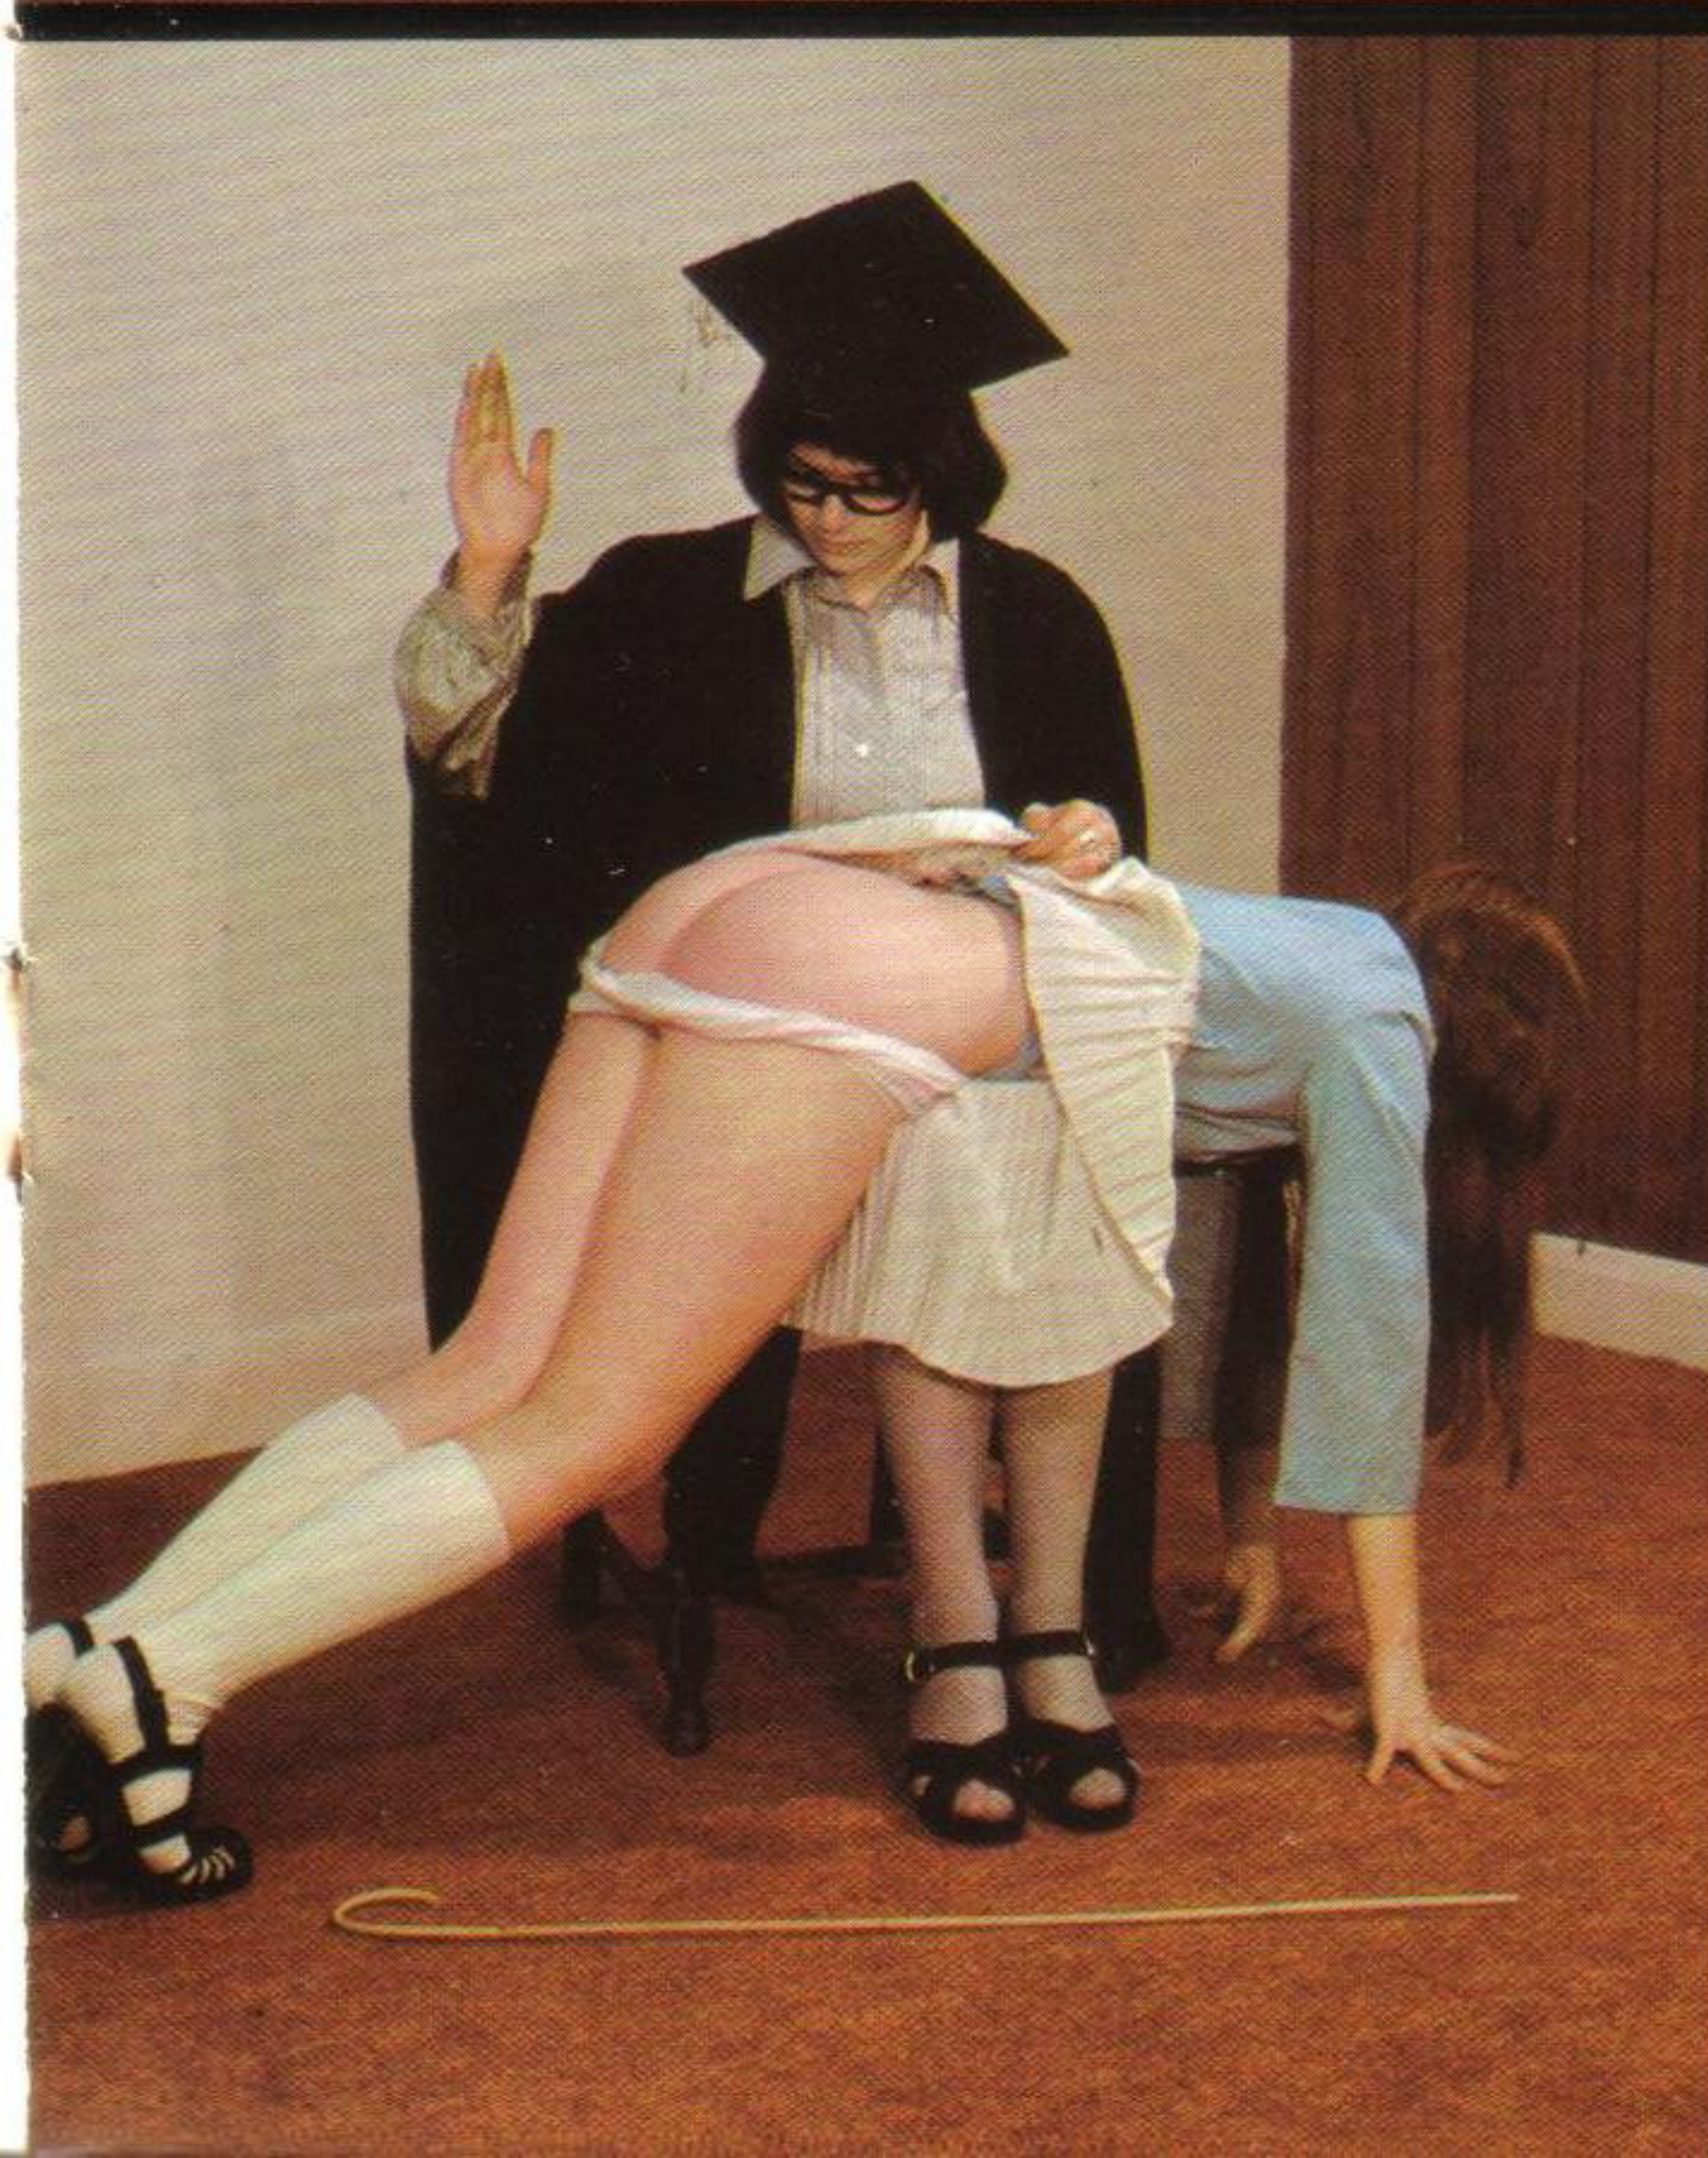

The farmer said the punishment should fit the offence — and then he tanned my bottom with the "Fruit Growers Gazette"! And he telephoned my parents.

In the evening Daddy said if I didn't finish my homework he'd give me a hand.

But when Dad read the letter from school and heard about the apples he tied me over a chair and gave me the strap instead! Dad always straps me bare.

I was sent straight to bed in disgrace.

Gosh, what a day! Still I suppose I deserved a few smackings. If I write to my M.P. about corporal punishment I bet he'd come round and spank me too!
